From the Helm

Scott "Cruz" Ripley ~ Captain, Brotherhood of the Coast US

Michele and I resumed our cruising journey in Florida on Friday, February 10th. We flew into Key West and rented a car to Marathon where Orza had been tied up at Faro Blanco Marina for almost a month.

Brother Sonney Forest babysat our "Big Girlfriend" by checking on her, starting the engines and drinking liquor with his lovely bride, Charlene, on the back deck. Sonney really did a great job and it was a big relief for us to leave the boat with him while we worked in Norfolk for 3 weeks.

Saturday, we provisioned the boat and waited for Stew & Diana Kauffman to arrive from Port St. Lucie by land yacht for an overnight on Orza. Drinks started at 1600 with Bernie & Margie Dove, Sonney and Charlene, and Al & Cynde Redfield, who drove up from Key West, joining us on the back deck. Joe & Claudia Hamrick were out of town so they missed this reunion.

After an hour or two of revelry, we walked up to the Lighthouse Grill for a delightful Brotherhood dinner with great friends.

Sunday morning the whole gang met for breakfast at the American Legion Hall. It's hard to beat the deal you get at the American Legion. Breakfast was $7-8 and the Bloody Marys and mimosas were $2. The food was excellent and very filling.

On Monday we began our slow trip back up the Keys toward our next major layover at Bahia Mar Marina in Ft. Lauderdale where there happens to be another BOC table. We plan on being back on the Chesapeake Bay in early May. Follow us on Facebook at "M-v Orza" if you can stand more of our trip.

Winter Wonderland

Winter on the southern Chesapeake Bay is generally categorized as grey and dreary punctuated by nice days. The water temperature is generally in the low forties so, the members of our Table who do not head south for the winter do not get a lot of boating in and, as a result, we do not see a lot of each other. This is where our monthly get-togethers become important in maintaining Table cohesion.

Brother Cruz sponsors his annual Boxing Day event at his home in downtown Norfolk. His Captive, Michele, was good enough to describe it for First Watch:

Boxing Day celebrations are a long-time tradition for the Chesapeake Bay Table. This get together on December 26th is part of our monthly Tip-A-Fews.

Scott & I host the event and it is always a hoot! This year we had 25 people in attendance all bearing delicious appetizers, side dishes and desserts to go with the Bourbon Ham entree.

After food and grog the event is capped off with a rousing round of Dirty Santa. But, there is a slight variant: it has to be a wrapped gift that was received but, never appreciated or used. If you think about it, it is actually a good way to re-gift your discards? (Although some people did bring a few really nice gifts.)

So, after filling up on lots of good food, we proceeded with our Dirty Santa gift exchange and there were many stolen items which made it even more fun! One of the hits was a little hula girl that Country Boy (Michael Monteith) brought and Brother Floater (Eric Matherne) was so fortunate to pick. He wiggled her on his behind to make her dance and attract would-be pilfering, but all he attracted was laughter. And this was before the broadside when we all consumed copious amounts of rum! The little hula girl was re-gifted again and has reportedly been seen on Facebook dancing around town in a car's rear view mirror. What great comradery and a wonderful way to end the year in the Brotherhood! ORZA!!!

The New Year

In January those in our Table who were not out cruising in warmer climes came together to celebrate the founding of the Chesapeake Bay Table ("CBT") at the end of the 20th Century. The event was held at the Hampton Yacht Club Courtesy of Thom ("Pilot") and Francine Dozier. With so many members of our Table gone for the winter, we thought this would be a small turnout. But, at the last minute, many confirmed that they would be attending. It was a wonderful evening overlooking the boats at the yacht club along the banks of the Hampton River.

Thanks to Red ("Boats") and Tricia Davis for sponsoring the February Tip-a-Few. Instead of the mid-winter chill normally associated with this month, Saturday's (Feb 25th) weather was in the upper 70's for most of the day. A cold front moved through our area just as we were gathering for fine food and grog among friends but, was kind enough to move through just north, sparing us from the severe weather.

Changes

In early February, we found out that our Brother Pilot had been diagnosed with a malignant tumor nestled up against his brain on the left-hand side of his head. Thanks to quick and aggressive action by his doctors, the tumor was removed without damage to the surrounding tissues. He now sports a scar worthy of any buccaneer! While he is here is more treatment in store for Pilot. Please keep him in your thoughts.

Thom was well enough to attend Red & Trish's T-a-F and we were thrilled to have this time with him after the ordeal of the weeks before. However, we had to limit his rum rations to insure his continued healing. During this T-a-F we also learned about other changes coming to our Table: Red and Trish will be moving to the upper Chesapeake Bay, on Maryland's Eastern Shore, later this year. Red's position with Vane Brothers requires him to be in the Baltimore and Philadelphia ports most of the time and geo-commuting to our area is wearing him down. While he will keep his flag with the CBT, we will miss seeing him on a regular basis. We wish him all the best as he relocates for his job.

The Chesapeake Bay Zafarrancho

The CBT has been busy planning this summer's premiere four-day event and annual Captain's meeting. Invitation and registration information was distributed to all the national Tables in mid-February. If you are interested in attending but, for some reason have not received the invitation, please Email the Table's Scribe, Floater (Eric Matherne) at ericm@mmdva.com. We sincerely hope to see everyone at our party in early June!

Gold Coast

Captain: Brian "McGyver" Schmitz
brianschmitz99@yahoo.com

The winter deep freeze has set in up North, while the Gold Coast is bathed in warmth and sunshine! It's our favorite time of year starting with the annual Winterfest Boat Parade raft-up Boucan in December. Unfortunately, the weather was not cooperating this year, so we all "rafted together" at MacGyver's house for the boat parade. Our parade includes a "dirty Santa" gift exchange, which is always a hoot – and this year was better than ever. There is a "gift" that originated with old "Dry Rot" of some ceramic boots that has been re-gifted every year for the last 10 years. These famous boots are now resided with a pasajero, so they will need to come back again next year to try to unload them on the next victim!

Of course, it won't be a party without a little wine, and our little gang managed to create 20 dead soldiers during the course of the afternoon and evening, and we did manage to stumble down the river to watch the boats in the boat parade get started from Riverwalk. It was a grand and glorious soiree' in spite of the weather!

We also have an annual Boucan to watch the Super Bowl together. The Boucan this year was held at Brother "Tricky Dick" Dick Ulrich's home on the river. The date also happened to coincide with Dick and Karlene's 50th wedding anniversary, so it was a big, blow-out party with fantastic food and plenty of grog with a great football game to boot.

The Gold Coast Table looks forward to the visit of Scott and Michelle on Orza and Sherry and Preston on Sojourner during February and March and we have a Boucan planned to party with them. Brian and Suzie also spent the weekend with Scott and Michelle in the Keys visiting Sonney and Charlene and Bernie and Marge. A fantastic group of people!

Houston

Captain: Ken "Chaser" Hutchinson
kchutchinson@gmail.com

The Houston Table has been relatively subdued for the past few months. We have had meetings and some get-togethers but due to the weather and the holidays, it is probably our least busy time of the year. In early December, we had our annual Christmas Party. It was held at the home of brother, Rick "Pescador" Hoekstra and his lovely captive Traci. There were plenty of stories and tons of Brotherhood fellowship. We did take advantage of the opportunity of having everyone together to induct our newest Brother....Troy "Old Man" Leek. We have been shepherding him along and he will make an excellent addition to our ranks. We also have a couple of promising Engagés and Pasajeros that are coming up the ranks and look promising. Stay tuned!!!

We also attended a TMCA(Texas Mariners Cruising Association) Ball. While TMCA is not BOC sanctioned, there are many Brothers that are members and it was well attended by those Brothers and their Captives. It is a night to give the ladies a chance to get all dolled up in their finest attire and of course it is fun and an honor to have them on our arm.

The beginning of February saw the Super Bowl (which coincidentally was held in Houston) happening and our table captain, Ken “Chaser” Hutchinson and his lovely captive Kelly hosted. There were many Brothers in attendance as well as some guests that we were looking at as potential Pasajeros that could hopefully become brothers. It was a great event to allow them meet everyone and for us to meet them. I will admit about half of the party left after the Atlanta Falcons were blowing out the Patriots. But the ones that stuck around were treated to quite a finish to the game and some good Brotherhood camaraderie!!!

We did manage to have a meeting or two to plan at least the first half of our year. We have some good boating events coming up. And also, our “Boats, Boom, and BBQ” Zaf that we are hosting July 21-23. Mark your calendars and please come on out and share in some fun, rum and Orza!!!! We also have a good contingent of Houston Brothers that attend the Margaritas and Señoritas Zaf in Corpus Christi on their own boat bottoms. We should have about 6 boats and several land yachts making the 200 mile journey down the Coast at the end of September. Always a favorite Annual Pilgrimage of Brothers to visit others down south!!!

That is all for now!!! ORZA!!!!

New York

Captain: Jane "Jungle Jane" Protzman
jmprotzman@earthlink.net

Brothers in Brotherhood blazers, and Captives in fancy dress and pearls, gathered at the home of Ina Fine for her Annual Holiday Zaf on December 17.

Ina's menu included home-made gravlax, a bountiful assortment of hors d'oeuvres, roasted pork medallions along with an unusual mixture of roasted butternut squash with nuts, cranberries and kale. For those with a sweet tooth a fabulous tiramisu and numerous other desserts topped off the meal. The most popular corner of the charming living room was that with the extensive display of wine bottles supplied by the guests.

Post-dinner activities included games to oil the brain.

Sincere Presentations

Oily Games

JungleJane read her FABLE FOR OUR TABLE, "Twas the Night of the Rendezvous". Presentations were made to Captain JungleJane, Tony (Rascal, ex-Secoin) and Joe (Sparks, Vigie) acknowledging their hard work assuring that the Table of New York remains the important and viable entity that it is. "Morris", the green frog pirate was presented to Ina for her continuing generous hospitality. Gaiety and joyfulness permeated the evening and a great time was had by all.

(With help from our hostess and our splendid photography support staff.)

Trip report from JungleJane USA Brotherhood in Action:

Many thanks to San Juan Brother Graham Castillo, Guatiki. January 9th, a friend and I missed our flight to St. Croix and were 'stranded' in San Juan. I texted Graham Castillo that we were in his 'hood and at the Verdanza Hotel. He came by the next morning and gave us his Gold Plated Tour of Old San Juan, a local history lesson and a ride to the airport. What a guy! And a perfect example of a caring Brother. Orza Guatiki!

Now we look forward to another boating season and a variety of Zaf venues. Our next Zaf will be at the home of Andrea Torrens (#93) and Lory Smith, the Artists' Aerie, in Cold Spring, NY on February 18, aptly named the Cold Spring Brunch.

Is it Spring yet?

The Table of the Sailing Capital is still waiting for winter to descend on the MidAtlantic; many are wondering why we ever hauled boats this year. It's possible we will have a March or April snow event, but it appears regardless of the quantity it will not last. Our Texas Brothers have had more winter weather than we have! So much for the answer to the question: is climate change occurring? Brother Salty Dog is traveling Florida in his land yacht POSLY and Rambo has been spending more time in Canada than Annapolis working and organizing North American sailing events.

The unusually mild winter has most of the Annapolis Brothers suffering from the ills of the season, with several brothers standing off from our TAFs due to colds & flu, my take is not enough RUM. Word has been passed on the various BOCUS Table events in Texas & Florida. Our individual travel plans are being formulated. With so many significant events ongoing we are encouraging our band to travel to other table events to really experience the BOCUS comradery. Annapolis will hold our annual Boucan Boil on August 26 and all brothers and mates are welcome.

The Annapolis entourage will see you at the Sail Norfolk Harbor Fest and the National Table Captain's Meeting in June. World ZAF? We have questions on feedback from the organizers of the International ZAF in Uruguay. Several of us have completed the initial query expressing interest in attending; however no one has received any response from our Brothers in Montevideo. Has anyone heard further information?

See you in Norfolk, ORZA!

Bob's "Bandera Bash" and Super Bowl Party

Bob Wills hosted his annual 'Bandera Bash' at his ranch in the heart of the Texas Hill Country. Once again we met in the Blue Wildebeest Saloon and held a Brotherhood meeting, a Trailer Trash planning meeting, and a Super Bowl party.

During the Brotherhood Meeting, Charles Hankins was elected as our new Table Captain succeeding Randy Goodrich.

The San Antonio Brothers and Captives would like to thank Randy and Julie for their service to the San Antonio Table during the last two years. Many, many Thanks to Randy and Julie!

During the Trailer Trash Planning Meeting we agreed to follow the same format and schedule as last year's trailer trash weekend event. Trailer Trash weekend is April 28, 29, and 30th with more details to follow. Look for the Registration form in the "Coming Attractions" area at the end of the First Watch.

Since we were welcomed by heavy cloud cover, the usual spectacular Hill Country Sunset was absent this night, or maybe not, depending on your level of celebration.

Savannah

Captain: John "Pirogue" Byrne
jhbinga@bellsouth.net

The Georgia coast and the Table of Savannah have experienced a generally mild winter and are preparing for the arrival of an early spring. Weekend racing is underway at the Savannah Yacht Club and the Chatham Sailing Club. Within the Table there is interest among the non-sailboat owners to volunteer for crew positions and see what this sailboat racing is all about.

The Savannah Table does not have a Zaf planned for 2017, but will hold Boucans to host Pasajeros and give our more distant members a chance to meet, and get to know, these prospective new members. The weekend of February 17-19 the Table enjoyed a party aboard Bob Sandlin's boat where we entertained ourselves together with four new Pasajeros and their Captives. There was plenty of good food and drink, and some very interesting boat handling observed as a neighboring owner backed into Savannah's swift currents. We've all been there.

Late January brought a truly wonderful thing into Savannah waters, a Savannah Brother with a new boat!! Jerry ("No See'em") and Kari Morris arrived in their Ocean Alexander 390 Sundeck. They were on their way from Annapolis (purchase point) to St. Simons Island (soon to be the Morris's new home). Naturally, emergency parties, dinners, cocktails aboard soon happened. All of us in Savannah are delighted with the prospect of having Jerry and Kari only an hour and a half away at St. Simons, instead of 6 hours away in Dahlongega.

As always, we look forward to your next visit to Savannah!

ORZA!

Sun Coast Sun Coast

Captain: Ed "Brillo" Loke
eloke@aol.com

There seems to be lots of inspiration to get an early jump on 2017 planning.... And the Suncoast Table is no exception.

Even before we get a "Save the Date" announcement published, our Little Pirate Christmas Zaf planning committee has been meeting over lunches to get the job done! Following our table's commitment to finding new and different venues, we have made serious changes for the 2017 events.

The opening evening event, for example, is scheduled for cocktails and dinner at the second oldest Automobile Museum in the country. Yes, they have a boat or two.... and a facility which lends itself to leisurely discovery together with a comfortable place to renew old Brotherhood friendships.

Yup, we'll also have a full pirate gear evening with wonderful music, dancing, speeches (WOW!) as well as a yard picnic and Sunday brunch!

So please mark your calendars for December 1-3, 2017. Our costs are kept low, the fun High, and we traditionally provide berths with local Brothers to keep your expenses low.

Speaking of new and different venues, our very own "The Don" and "The Chemist" mixed up a truly strange but fun event for the table's January happy hour.... At Soloman's Castle. Never heard of it?? We're not surprised. Located in the middle of a swamp in Ona, Florida (35 miles east of Bradenton) this castle/museum was the handiwork of Mr. Howard Soloman, an unusual and unusually talented metalworker and artist.

The castle itself houses a humorous assortment of "art pieces" with entertaining guided tours... followed by a luncheon requiring passage through a pirate ship enroute to the restaurant in a lighthouse (40 miles from the coast). Visit www.solomanscastle.com if you want more info about the place invaded by 25 Suncoast table folks.
